not be interpreted as sanctioning such recommendations simply because they are supported by the minimum of experimental data nor as discouraging the early publication of experimental results for the benefit of technical workers.

Additions to Bibliography.

The following titles should be added to the bibliography of this subject published in the December, 1917, December, 1918, and December, 1919, issues of the Journal of the American Society of Agronomy:

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. Wiancko,
A. C. Arny,
S. C. Salmon,
Committee.

Report of the Committee on Terminology.

Your Committee begs to report that it has made some progress toward completing a Glossary of Agronomic Terms, tho not as much as had been hoped. With the progress of the work it becomes more and more evident that many new terms are needed, and many such will be proposed. It will be most desirable to present them first in the Journal so as to secure the benefits of criti-