Above left: Scientists and graduate students received “Advocacy 101” training at this year’s Science Policy luncheon, learning how to more effectively engage in science policy from a panel of members and associates engaged in science policy. Above right: Monday’s Career Fair was a popular draw for attendees, with 740 people attending the event, visiting representatives from 26 Career Fair booths, including Crop Production Services.

Annual Meeting by the Numbers

The city of Minneapolis welcomed 4,218 attendees (with an additional 3,032 individuals from the Entomological Society of America) to the 2015 ASA, CSSA, and SSSA Annual Meeting, held under the theme, “Synergy in Science: Partnering for Solutions,” 15-18 November at the Minneapolis Convention Center. Here’s the ASA, CSSA, SSSA Annual Meeting numbers:

- Attendees: 4,218
- Countries Represented: 55
- Early Career Professionals: Grad Students–995, Early Career–334
- Abstracts Presented: 3,119
- Technical Sessions: 432
- Exhibit Booths: 79
- App Downloads: 2,691
- Food Bank Donations: $1,650

doi:10.2134/csa2016-61-1-7