Thanks to Our Reviewers

Maintaining the editorial standards of a scientific journal is an important responsibility because the publications of a society are one of its major services to its members. Maintaining such standards is the ultimate responsibility of the journal editorial board, and this task can only be accomplished with the advice of a large number of colleagues who are invited to review manuscripts. Their critical comments and helpful suggestions have played a major part in making the Journal of Environmental Quality (JEQ) a success. On behalf of the 2012 Editorial Board of JEQ, I extend my thanks to all those scientists who have reviewed manuscripts submitted to JEQ over the past year. Many of the reviewers listed below reviewed more than one paper. This list may not be complete due to problems in collating such information from many sources. We extend our apologies to those reviewers whose names have not been included.
