News and Announcements

Analysis of Income and Expense

Soil Survey Horizons

Volume 29, 1988

Income:

- 1,081 Subscriptions $10,779.00
- Back volumes, single issue sales $117.50
- Historical Aspects Reprint $361.65

Total income $11,258.15

Expenses:

- Composition, printing, and paper $3,853.77
- Distribution $1,110.38
- Personnel $3,772.83
- Headquarters office (overhead) $2,019.99

Total expenses $10,756.97

Excess of income over expenses $501.18

The Editorial Board presents the above analysis for your information. Soil Survey Horizons has experienced an excess of income over expenses for 4 consecutive yr and 5 of the past 6 yr.

The Editorial Board extends a sincere thank you to those who contributed articles, information, and paid for a subscription to Soil Survey Horizons. We encourage you to urge your nonsubscribing colleagues to order a subscription to your publication, Soil Survey Horizons. We must continue to maintain 1,100 to 1,200 subscriptions to show an income for the publication. We solicit your continuing support in this effort.