I was most fortunate in being selected for a summer assignment to the State of Massachusetts from June 10 to August 15, 1963. The purpose of the assignment was to gain a broader knowledge of soils in other areas. This was a most enjoyable and educational tour of duty for myself and my family.

We took a southern route through the Great Smoky Mountains, Washington, D.C., New York City and to Northampton, Mass. In Washington, D.C., I contacted my former boss, R.M. Marshall and he gave me a grand tour of the SCS. This was well worth my time and certainly educational. Our

(see page 14)