Half gallon and gallon plastic bleach bottles are easily converted into scoops for use in sampling soils, mixing small composite samples, and filling soil bags. J. G. Haigh, Soil Conservation Service.