REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOIL COLOR STANDARDS

By J. G. Hutton, Chairman.

The preparation of a set of soils representative of the color range in soils has been especially considered by Mr. T. D. Rice of the committee. No further progress in securing a color chart of standard colors has been made, although one publishing firm has again taken the matter under consideration. It is expected that a more satisfactory report may be made in the future.